

Shape from Focus: Homework

---

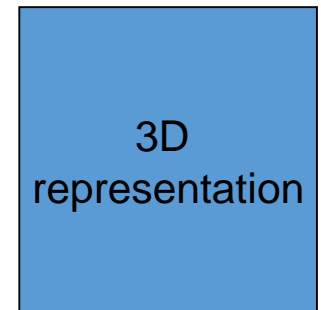

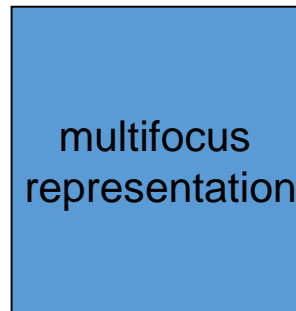

To be carried out individually or by pairs (up to your convenience):

- Compute a multifocus representation from the three focus/defocused images (i.e., by using the pixel with highest variance).
- Generate a 3D representation assuming a constant step between each plane in focus.
- Present your results with a short report (maximum 1 page and 2 slides)

→ January 29th

Given images

Your expected results